John T. Ladd of Franklin lost one of a pair of team horses Saturday. The horse was taken sick in the morning and sithough attended by a vet-erinary it died at 6 o'clock from a stoppage. The horse was insured by E. G. Rawson of this city.

official announcement was made this week by Oscar A. Turner, presi-dent of the Ely Central Copper com-pany, the stock of which has been very prominent in the outside mar-kets for the past few months, that heavy development work on the com-pany's estate, Ely, Nevada, has already been started, following the successful been started, following the successful financing of the corporation, which included the underwriting of a bond issue, amounting to $600,000. Mr. Turner has ordered that a working shaft be sunk on the Eureka Fraction claim of the Ely Central at a distance of about 600 feet from the eastern side of the steam shovel pit of the Nevada Consolidated estate. Speaking of this work, Mr. Turner, at the offices of the Ely Central Copper comoffices of the Ely Central Copper com-pany in New York, this week, said: "This deposit has a thickness of 480 feet at the point where the shaft is to be sunk, so that in order to reach the bottom of it the shaft will have to go down 1.150 feet. The dip of this ore body continues downward from a point where our shaft is to be sunk. believe that when we reach the lower levels of the deposit through the ore shaft and its lateral workings, it is very much more than probable that strata of very high grade ore will

"There is little question but what this deposit is the direct continuation of the Nevada Consolidated ore body. and that it will prove as strong and as rich, if not richer, in ore than it has been proved to be in the case of Nevada Consolidated."

Gaylor and Graff in "The Silent Woman" have a witty sketch in which there is a pretty girl who foois her lover for a time by making the poor youth believe her deaf and dumb. Miss Frances Gerard, with a charming stage pressure and stage presence and a pure, sweet so-prano, sings "Sweet Senora" very art-istically and as encores "I'll Do as I Pléase" and "The Last Rose of Sum-mer." Harry Dare, a lively blackface performer, has a very agrecable speak-ing voice and he uses it to tell some laugh-provoking stories, in addition to which he sings two or three songs, plays tunes on his buttons and tunes plays tunes on his buttons and tunes on his cuffs and with the accordion gives imitations of various instruments. Benson and Bell, the dancers are finely costumed and very handy on their feet, the skirt dance by the young woman of the team being decidedly graceful, and the stuttering and lisping duet very laughable. CURFEW LAW.

At the meeting of the Waterbury board of safety, says The Waterbury Republican, the petition of the Rev. Republican, the petition of the Rev. Peter Saurastaltis and over 100 other Brooklyn residents for the enactment of a law regulating the presence of children on the streets after 9 o'clock at night, was referred to the committee on laws, ordinances and regulations. The petition is as follows:

"We, the undersigned citizens, of Waterbury, respectfully represent:

Lince May 21 Has Destroyed 123 Dogs at $3 Each.

In compliance with the new state law, Dog Warden Thomas Kelley has filed a report with Town Clerk Rob-ert Weber showing that from May 21 to August 1 he has destroyed 123 dogs. and that his charge in each case to the city is $3, in accordance with the rate fixed by law. The report does not rate fixed by law. The report does not include the number of dogs placed in the pound in Drew place, as the law only requires a report on the number of unlicensed dogs killed by the warden. The report gives a description of the dogs and the location where the animal was picked up. In instances where the name of the owner is known that is also entered.

The rate of $3 per dog is $2 less than the amount allowed the warden last year. Last year the dog catcher in Waterbury made in the neighborhood of $4.000 killing dogs at $5 each and waterbury made in the neighborhoos of $4.000 kiling dogs at $5 each and the legislature seemed to think that the possibility of a man getting rich in the dog-catching business was too great, so they voted to reduce the fee to $3.—Bridgeport Farmer.

CONGRESSMAN LOVERING ILL. Not Expected to Get Well Enuogh to Return to Congress.

A despatch from North Scituate says that Representative William C. Lovering is very ill at the Glades club there, and it is feared by his intimate friends that he will never be able to resume his seat in the national halls at Washington. Mr. Lovering went there from Washington about a month ago and at once consulted Dr. Oliver H. Howe, who ordered rest and plenty ago and at once consulted Dr. Offver H. Howe, who ordered rest and plenty of it. Though Mr. Lovering was desirous of returning to Washington to take part in the tariff bill debate, his physician refused to permit of his leaving the club, and as a result he incurred the displeasure of Speaker Cannon. It is claimed this is the cause of his losing the committee chairmanship which he formerly held.

I am only the gardener, working from day to day,

I love the breath of the morning, the smell of the new-mown hay.

I love the woods in the springtime, in the aummer and in the fall.

Do you think that the man who owns that?

Mire are the apple blossoms, the peach and the dogwood tree.

The springtime flowers and the April showers, and the bloom of the cottonwood tree.

The maple puts on her cost of red, the windflower wakes in the morn.

The fern untwists, and through the mists the aummer day is born.

Golden rod and asters, a field of purple and gold.

The aummer is done and from the north the wind blows hard and cold.

From April showers to summer flowers, from March till cold December.

The woods and fields and flowers are mine; that will I remember.

OUR SAVIOR.

Help in our labor, love when we fail, Bearing our load in the moonday heat, Drying our eyes in the twilight pale, Smoothing the paths for our tender feet. Strength in the conflict, love in de-feat. Fighting our fight when our strength is small. Shelter and rest when the wild beat,
Holding us close that we ma Comfort in suffering, strength to endure.

Love and kindness more than all,
Mercy and grace and freidship pure,
This is our Sayfor, Lord of all.
